INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON

“EMERGING ROLE OF VITAMIN D IN HUMAN HEALTH”

Dear Colleague,

The Institute of Home Economics, a constituent college of Delhi University, in collaboration with National Institute of Nutrition Hyderabad and Sitaram Bhartia Institute of Science and Research Delhi, is organizing an ‘International Workshop on Emerging Role of Vitamin D in Human Health’ being held on 4th and 5th October 2011 at the Delhi University Conference Centre, University of Delhi North Campus.

This workshop is being held as part of the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the Institute. It will have presentations and panel discussions by distinguished international as well as national experts working in the area of vitamin D research to address the current issues and challenges concerning vitamin D and health. Open discussions focusing on the identification of gaps in knowledge on the role of vitamin D, methodological challenges and future research areas will be held.

On behalf of the organizing committee, we invite you and your colleagues to participate in the two day workshop and we look forward to your participation to make it a success.
